Preface

H.G. Greene and B.J. Todd	iii
----------------------------------------	-----

MODERN TECHNOLOGIES

Seafloor imagery, remote sensing and bathymetry: Acoustic Ground Discrimination Systems (AGDS)

C.J. Brown	3

Satellite and airborne imagery including aerial photography for benthic habitat mapping

A. Dekker, R. Mount and A. Jordan	11
------------------------------------------------	----

Canadian imaging and sampling technology for studying benthic habitat and biological communities

D.C. Gordon, Jr., D.L. McKeown, G. Steeves, W.P. Vass, K. Bentham and M. Chin-Yee	29
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Automated textural image analysis of seabed backscatter mosaics: A comparison of four methods

R.D. Müller, S. Eagles, P. Hogarth and M. Hughes	39
---------------------------------------------------------------	----

MAPPING TECHNIQUES

Mosaics of benthic habitats using laser line scan technology

M.R. Amend, M.M. Yoklavich, Y. Rzhanov, C.B. Grimes and W.W. Wakefield	61
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

A rapid method to characterize seabed habitats and associated macro-organisms

T.J. Anderson, G.R. Cochrane, D.A. Roberts, H. Chezard and G. Hatcher	71
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Marine facies mapping using multibeam backscatter

O. Christensen, O. Longva, T. Thorsnes and A. Karlsen	81
--------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Exploratory surveys of seabed habitats in Australia's deep ocean using remote sensing – needs and realities

R.J. Kloser, A. Williams and A.J. Butler	93
-------------------------------------------------------	----

A quantitative approach for using multibeam sonar data to map benthic habitats

C.E. Whitmire, R.W. Embley, W.W. Wakefield, S.G. Merle and B.N. Tissot	111
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

CLASSIFICATION SCHEMES

Marine classification, mapping, and biodiversity analysis

C.B. Cogan and T.T. Noji	129
---------------------------------------	-----

Construction of digital potential marine benthic habitat maps using a coded classification scheme and its application

H.G. Greene, J.J. Bizzarro, V.M. O'Connell and C.K. Brylinsky	141
----------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Addressing spatial uncertainty in mapping southern Australian coastal seabed habitats V. Halley and A. Jordan	157
Process-driven characterization and mapping of seabed habitats V.E. Kostylev and C.G. Hannah	171
A framework for a coastal/marine ecological classification standard (CMECS) C.J. Madden and D.H. Grossman	185
The use of geological data in developing a framework for the mapping of marine habitats on a national scale in English waters S.L. Philpott, J.W.C. James, C.V.L. Poulton, E.J. Bee, C. Graham and L. Jones	211
Development of a regional seafloor surficial geologic habitat map for the continental margins of Oregon and Washington, USA C.G. Romsos, C. Goldfinger, R. Robison, R.L. Milstein, J.D. Chaytor and W.W. Wakefield	219

CASE HISTORIES

Geophysical variables as predictors of megabenthos assemblages from the Northern Great Barrier Reef, Australia R.J. Beaman and P.T. Harris	247
Complex deep shelf habitat: Sponge reefs in the Pacific northwest K.W. Conway, J.V. Barrie and M. Krautter	265
The offshore Edgecumbe lava field, southeast Alaska: Geologic and habitat characterization of a commercial fishing ground H.G. Greene, V.M. O'Connell, W.W. Wakefield and C.K. Brylinsky	277
Habitat mapping of a cold-water coral reef off Norway: A comparison of visual and computer-assisted methods to interpret sidescan sonar data V. Hühnerbach, Ph. Blondel, V.A.I. Huvenne and A. Freiwald	297
A method for seabed habitat mapping: Integrating acoustic information with biogeophysical observations; case study – Scott Reef I. McLeod, T.D. Skewes, S.R. Gordon and C.R. Pitcher	309
The use of geophysical survey data in fisheries management: A case history from southeast Alaska V.M. O'Connell, C.K. Brylinsky and H.G. Greene	319
Benthic foraminifera as environmental indicators in Torres Strait–Gulf of Papua A.L. Post, L. Scaffi, V. Passlow and D.C. Collins	329

Mapping marine benthic habitat in the Gulf of Alaska: Geological habitat, fish distributions, and fishing intensity S.K. Shotwell, J. Heifetz, D.L. Courtney and H.G. Greene	349
Video analysis of megabenthos assemblages in the central Gulf of Maine L. Watling and C. Skinder	369
SEAFLOOR DISTURBANCES
Marine mining and habitat J.V. Barrie and T.M. Good	381
Impact of offshore aggregate extraction in the Prince Rupert area of British Columbia, Canada T.M. Good, J.V. Barrie and B.D. Bornhold	389
Impacts of bay floor disturbances on benthic habitats in San Francisco Bay H.G. Greene, T.L. Vallier, J.J. Bizzarro, S. Watt and B.E. Dieter	401
Impacts of mobile fishing gear on continental shelf sedimentary habitat characterization L. Watling	421
The effects of dredge material disposal on marine benthic habitats of the Santa Cruz Bight, California S. Watt and H.G. Greene	427
MARINE POLICY
Ocean management of Queen Charlotte Basin, British Columbia, Canada J.V. Barrie and K.W. Conway	441
Applying marine habitat data to fishery management on the US west coast: Initiating a policy-science feedback loop S.L. Copps, M.M. Yoklavich, G.B. Parkes, W.W. Wakefield, A. Bailey, H.G. Greene, C. Goldfinger and R.W. Burn	451
Applications of geophysical information to the design of a representative system of marine protected areas in southeastern Australia P.T. Harris	463
Habitat mapping and national seafloor mapping strategies in Canada R.A. Pickrill and V.E. Kostylev	483
European marine geoscience database projects – giving access to existing collections A.G. Stevenson and T. Thorsnes	497
Index	505
